

Be Well Do Well Podcast Series 2022-2023 Application Information

Podcast to promote the behavioral health and wellness of Palm Beach County residents and professionals.

Great ideas can come from anywhere! That is why we invite individuals, groups, and organizations to spark your imagination for new ways to support mental health now, and for the long term.

*What does our community need? Who could you help?
What conversation could make a positive impact on our mental and behavioral health?*

BeWellPBC invites you to share your innovative podcast ideas starting February 7th!

We welcome individuals, groups and/or organizations in Palm Beach County to apply

Apply by yourself or with partners. We love people working together!

We ask you to remember to:

- Support Palm Beach County professionals and residents most in need
- Promote creative solutions for behavioral health and wellness
- Focus on areas of interest:
 - Community healing and resiliency
